The song of Minchaouzen

In the wind and in confusion war came, an old malediction war came, fire and heart how we will chase it away, hocus - pocus.

One will fight in the battles another will tell the stories and we here in the theater, in front of you, will make the hope in your hearts stronger.

During the war and the misery
Minchaouzen will come with imagination Minchaouzen will come to bring the joy how will he make so many miracles?

In the lies and the tales Minchaouzen also brings truth Minchaouzen brings so much poetry that will save us from the war.
